"Superintendent Martin has made significant contributions throughout his career in corrections. I am confident that his broad range of experience will make him a strong leader at the Miami Correctional Facility. I am excited to welcome Superintendent Martin in this new and challenging role."

J. David Donahue,
Commissioner

Indianapolis, Indiana - (April 21, 2006) - Indiana Department of Correction announced today the appointment of Gene Martin as Superintendent of the Miami Correctional Facility in Miami County.

"Superintendent Martin has made significant contributions throughout his career in corrections," said J. David Donahue. "I am confident that his broad range of experience will make him a strong leader at the Miami Correctional Facility. I am excited to welcome Superintendent Martin in this new and challenging role."

"I have had the good fortune to work with exceptional and supportive staff at the Rockville facility, and while I will miss them, I look forward to the opportunity to work with the talented professionals who make the Miami Correctional Facility so highly-regarded in the Department of Correction," said Superintendent Gene Martin.

Most recently, Martin served as Superintendent of Rockville Correctional Facility since 1989. He began his career at Rockville Training Center as Assistant Superintendent in 1976 and has held several positions including the Director of Camps and Juvenile Institutions.

Mr. Martin has a BA in Sociology and History from University of Indianapolis and a Masters of Science in Criminology from Indiana State University.

In his new role, effective May 30, Superintendent Martin will directly report to Northern Regional Director, Cecil Davis.
